QUINTODECIMO TAURASI VIGNA GRANDE CERZITO RISERVA 2018

Aromas and flavors of amarena cherries and plums with some vanilla from the oak. Medium- to full-bodied, this Taurasi riserva is almost fleet of foot, though not lacking either tannin structure or fruit weight. A lovely example of a Taurasi that's nicely balanced from start to finish, with no heavy-handed excess in any quarter. Approachable even now, yet this will clearly gain in complexity with some aging.

QUINTODECIMO AGLIANICO
IRPINIA TERRA D'ECLANO 2020

Aromas of blackberries and blueberries against a backdrop of floral and herbal notes that add complexity and interest. Medium-bodied with almost tart plum and plum skin flavor. The palate is tight and the tannins fine but sturdy, drying out the finish a little for now. Give this some time to even out. Try from 2024.

QUINTODECIMO IRPINIA BIANCO GRANDE CUVÉE LUIGI MOIO 2021

Complex aromas of rock melon and peach together with floral and lightly honeyed notes, following through to a medium-bodied palate with very good concentration and focus. There's a lightly phenolic element adding structure and creating a long finish that progresses from fruit, through tangy honey to saline minerals. Lots going on here. Blend of falanghina, greco and fiano. Drink now.
